

MEDICAL CONFERENCE ON "AGEING AND CONTINUING GOOD HEALTH"

EVENTS

The Scientific Association of Medical Officers, Jagjivan Ram Hospital, Western Railway, in association with Indian Public Health Association-Railway Service Branch, organised a two days Annual Conference on the theme "Ageing and Continuing Good Health" on 31st March and 1st April, 2012 at YMCA international, Mumbai Central.

Dr. V K Ramteke, Director General, Railway Health Services, Railway Board inaugurated the Conference and Shri Mahesh Kumar, General Manager, Western Railway presided over the function.

★ Shri Mahesh Kumar, General Manager, Western Railway addressing and releasing a special souvenir on the occasion of Annual Medical Conference held by Jagjivan Ram Hospital. Also seen are Dr.V.K. Ramteke, DG/RHS, Railway Board and Dr. H.M. Jain, CMD, W.Rly. & Dr. Geeta Chaturvedi, Medical Director, JR Hospital of Western Railway.

Dr. H M Jain, Chief Medical Director, Western Railway and Dr. Geeta Chaturvedi, Medical Director, JR Hospital addressed the gathering.

Dr. Ashok Kumar, Hon Secretary, SAMO JR Hospital, presented the academic activity report and Dr. N.K.Depal, Organizing Secretary extended a vote of thanks. Various topics were discussed focusing on how good health practices throughout life can help elderly people to be an asset & resourceful member of their family and community. The Conference was attended by about 200 delegates from all over Indian Railways.