

FAQ RELATED TO ADMISSION

1. Is hostel facility available?

Ans: It is available, double sharing room in 3BK flat and no provision of family accommodation.

2. Is there any bond for relieving after completion of training?

Ans: No bond required.

3. How much time required for admission?

Ans: It is advised to report one prior to last day. It may be completed in one day, if reports before 10am of working day.

4. Is Sunday open for admission?

Ans: No, on Sunday and Holidays declared by Western Railway, the hospital office is closed for the admission.

5. How much leave permissible?

Ans: As per NBEMS guideline updated on NBEMS website.

6. Is stipend will be paid during extension period?

Ans: No, if you avail more than eligible leave it will be 'leave without pay' for such period and during extension also it will be without stipend as the railway sanctioned pay for 3/2 yr only from the date of joining. During maternal and paternity leave you will get stipend for extra leave than eligible leave, but no stipend for extension period.

7. If candidate had report for joining and opt for upgradation, but didn't get upgradation seat in next round of counselling, what will be joining date?

Ans: In this regard this is to inform that the joining date shall be the same when the candidate has reported to the institute in first round. However, if the candidate is willing to upgrade the seat. Then the date of joining will be changed to the date when the candidate join the new institute.

8. Does Institute keep the original documents in custody during training period?

Ans: No, originals certificates are returned after verification.

9. How much is hostel fee?

ANS: It is included in annual tuition fee.